A vibrant, cartoon-style illustration on a dark blue background. At the top, a soccer ball, a DNA double helix, and a pink keyboard are visible. A dashed line connects the keyboard to the soccer ball. In the center, a pink oval contains the word 'PERMANENCES'. Below it, the text 'À L' ÉCOLE D' HILARD' is underlined. Further down, a white checkmark in a box is followed by 'LUNDI 01 SEPTEMBRE À 15H30'. Below that, another underlined text reads 'À LA MAISON DE QUARTIER D' HILARD', followed by another white checkmark in a box and 'MERCREDI 3 SEPTEMBRE'. At the bottom, a boy with dark hair is sitting at a table, eating from a bowl with a spoon. To his right is a large gold trophy on a green base. To his left is a paintbrush with a yellow handle and a pink brush head. A dashed line connects the trophy to the paintbrush. A basketball is on the left, and a green can with a blue speech bubble is on the right. Various geometric shapes like stars, circles, and triangles are scattered throughout the background.
